HOA News & Information

It's only February, and we've already been busy with projects! The pump room at our main pool will be getting a face lift after a malfunction at the end of pool season 2019. The new configuration will make it much easier to perform maintenance! Speaking of pool season, mark your calendars for opening day May 2nd!

We're also working on the lake, which encompasses the fountain, beaver dam, and newly discovered otters that are now calling the lake home. Both the beavers and otters have a mission to destroy the fountain, so to combat this, we'll be pulling the fountain out of the lake until the wildlife issues are under control. We'll begin deconstructing the beaver dam as soon as the area dries. While the fountain is out, we'll have it thoroughly repaired, with a new power cable installed, and beaver proofed. Hopefully, this will deter any more chewing.

We have 4 new landscape projects that were approved and budgeted for in 2020. The raised bed at the circle entrance, Kentmere playground, Palisades portal entrance to Town Green, and the large round bed at the Main Pool Bathrooms will be updated and renovated over the course of the year. We're excited to see these projects finished!

If you own a business that could be used to complete our projects, please contact the office. We would love to use resident owned companies!

Please remember, according to Exhibit C of the Initial Use Restrictions, Section 2 (g), Outside burning of trash, leaves, debris, or other materials, except during the normal course of constructing a dwelling on a Unit;

Have a Graduating Senior?

Legacy Park is a great community for families and what better way to honor our children who have achieved a memorable time in their lives than to highlight their achievement in the newsletter. In the May newsletter, we will include space to honor our residents who will be graduating from high school. Please go to our website and fill out the form found under the Home Owners tab at www.legacypark.org with the following: Student name, school graduating from, future plans, parents' names, & neighborhood. By completing this form, your graduate will also get a sign that will line Legacy Park Boulevard.

Buildium Sign Up

Many of you received the mail out that includes how to sign up for Buildium. In case you missed it, please go to the Buildium resident log in at <https://legacypark.managebuilding.com/Resident/portal/login>. Once here, you'll add your information. Under "Where do you live?" you'll select Legacy Park Community Association Inc. After selecting the association, you'll see another drop down menu with unit #s. You will need your unit number. Your unit number is the first 2 letters of your street name followed by the first letter of your street type. For example, if you live at 1234 Main Street, your unit number is MAS1234.

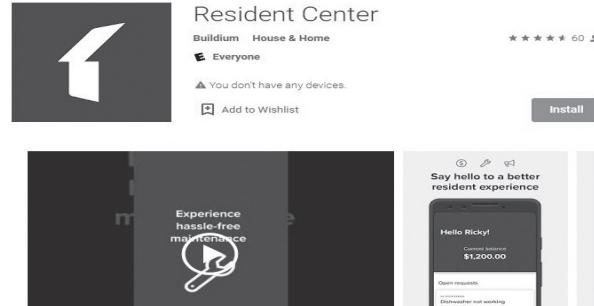

The screenshot shows the 'Create your account' page for Legacy Park. It features a logo at the top left. The form fields include: First name, Last name, Email, Mobile number, Where do you live? (dropdown menu showing 'LEGACY PARK COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.'), Which unit? (dropdown menu showing 'Select a unit...' and a list of unit numbers: AMP2868, AMP2869, AMP2870, AMP2871, AMP2872, AMP2874). At the bottom, there's a 'Create account' button and a note about agreeing to Privacy Policy and Terms of Service.

This screenshot shows a different view of the 'Create your account' page. It includes fields for First name, Last name, Email, and Mobile number. Below these are dropdown menus for 'Where do you live?' (showing 'LEGACY PARK COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.') and 'Which unit?' (showing 'Select a unit...' and a list of unit numbers: AMP2868, AMP2869, AMP2870, AMP2871, AMP2872, AMP2874). A note at the bottom says 'Experience hassle-free maintenance' with a wrench icon.

If you'd like to download the App, please go to your app store and search Resident Center by Buildium. You will use the same login credentials as the Buildium website.

If you need any help with getting set up, please let the office know. If you have issues, please email us, with your name, address, and email, and we can set the account up for you and send a link.

ELECTION REMINDERS

During the election process, please remember that the HOA does not endorse any candidate(s). The HOA handles the official communication of election details to residents, along with Vote-Now. This specific process allows the residents to have all the information available regarding all the candidates before they cast a vote. Other information may be sent by the individual candidates. Neither the Board of Directors, Election Committee nor HOA staff members will be involved in the collection or counting of any of the votes cast. Vote-Now is responsible for this process. In your voting package, you will receive all contact information if you have questions about casting your vote.

The official communication includes:

- Correspondence on LP HOA letterhead;
- The Legacy Park Town Herald newsletter;
- Legacy Park website; and
- Legacy Park e-mail distribution from the property manager and/or Vote Now.

These communication tools are controlled and maintained by the Legacy Park HOA. The HOA does NOT maintain or control any social media websites, except for the information only "Legacy Park Community Association" Facebook Page which can be found at <https://www.facebook.com/legacyparkhoa/>.

It is not a violation of the Association's governing documents for members (homeowners) to campaign for Board positions or to go door to door.

If you want to guarantee how your vote is counted, you must vote electronically or complete, sign & mail your Ballot to Vote-Now. The Ballot mailed to you includes all possible candidates through the date of the mail-out.

A Note from Covenants...

This time of year seems to make things that need to be addressed on our homes even more obvious. It may be a good time to take an objective walk around your property to see if you're in need of a few cosmetic tweaks before they become larger issues.

Some of the most common things we're seeing now are:

- Mailboxes and number plates in need of repair. Did you know the HOA office has brass numbers for those neighborhoods that use them and paint pens in brass and silver for you to borrow? We also have the contact information for professionals that can paint, repair, and replace mailboxes and posts.
- Landscaping that needs to be replaced because of age. Do you have shrubbery that has bare spots when it's supposed to be green? If your landscaping needs life support, we're more than happy to help get you on the road to recovery.
- Homes that need pressure washing. Is your driveway growing algae from all of the rain? Your house too? A quick pressure wash will help take that away and leave everything sparkling just in time for spring.
- Homes that need painting. Is your home not quite the color you remember it being last year? Sometimes all it needs is a good cleaning, other times, it needs a full painting.
- Overgrown trees. We love them, but sometimes they tend to get a little too big for their intended spots in our yards. It may be time to give the trees in your life a hair cut. If you plan to take trees totally out, please contact the City of Kennesaw for a permit.
- Sod replacement. Does your yard have bald spots or spots that are very thin? It may be time to think about resodding if it doesn't come back in as lush and thick as it once was in the spring.

As always, any update you would like to do needs approval from the ARC BEFORE completion, including roofs, windows, doors, etc. Modification forms are available in the Knowledge Base at www.legacypark.org and in the HOA office. If you need assistance with this, choosing approved colors, or need an opinion on whether or not it's time to do any of these things to your home or property, please reach out to the office.

Clubs & Committees

Active Adults 55+

On January 17th, the Active Adults club had their first meeting of 2020. And, as usual, it was a rollicking evening because we had not seen many of our members since our Christmas party and so much has happened during that time--a whole year has passed. Now in the new year we have so much to look forward to like our new President, Joe Marbury, who was introduced to our membership by our outgoing President, John Hesselman. We are elated that Joe has taken the reigns over from John.

Our theme for this meeting was "Welcome to 2020." Nice way to greet friends and start talking and wondering what this New Year will bring. Only time will tell. The food was catered by Rafferty's. That's the best way to start the new year--no cooking!

Since this is beginning of a new year, Richie Denton is now collecting dues. Dues remain the same as last year. Any questions see Richie.

However, Joe has a very challenging year ahead of him as we have several vacancies that need to be filled as soon as possible. His first official objective is to fill several vacancies in our club as he announced. First, one of the most important positions is to find a secretary to take monthly minutes of the Board meetings and write an article for the Legacy Park Newsletter. Secondly, we need to find a Food Coordinator. Joe wants the food coordinator to have a committee to help plan our monthly dinner meetings. This individual whether it is male, or female is also responsible for purchasing supplies like coffee, milk, plates, plastic ware, lemonade, tea, etc. In other words, everything that's needed to complete a meal is included in this responsibility plus having people clean up in the kitchen. Now one can see the necessity of having a committee. To date, majority of the time we have had Ruth Hesselman, Diana Denton, Chris Babyak and Theresa Kalven on the kitchen detail: washing wine glasses, dishes, cleaning up the kitchen. Then we need some people to help set up the tables and take them down and vacuum the room, so it is neat and ready for the next function or event. Thirdly, Joe would like to have a Social Secretary (a new position), to send out cards for birthdays, get well, etc. for members as well as keeping members involved. Fourth and last, we also need a new Activities Director. Lillian Goulet has had this position for a few years and feels it's time for new leadership. As with this position, the director can decide what and where we go, purchase tickets, etc. This can be any activity the director decides we would be interested in going and gets members to go. Some theater and concert tickets can get discounted rates depending on the number of members going. You can also bring a friend if you so choose. And we all know how much we like dining out; this could be in addition to our monthly meeting.

We have much to look forward to this new and exciting year. Our next meeting is Friday, February 21st.

Please take note of our Social Calendar and place these dates on your date calendars for 2020.

The Nature Spot

Brought to you by the Landscape Committee

How to Watch the Birds and Mute a Woodpecker

On cold winter days, curled up in our nests, we'll sit facing our favorite screens. Tuning out the outside world, we tune in to the hours of entertainment we love to enjoy. There are plenty of screens lying around almost every corner of our homes, many through which we can watch the most natural of Nature Channels and the real-est of Reality Shows. Through these window screens we can see exciting episodes of bird behavior so thrilling even Hitchcock would give back his Golden Globe. An Animal Planet with gripping scenes that tune us in to our world outside.

Watch as The Real Housewives, Robin and Wren, compete live for a same nesting box on which they've both set their sights. Spoiler Alert Almost every season Wren will win by destroying Robin's eggs.

See the Bachelorette Cardinal chirping loudly, mimicking a baby's cry. She follows the targeted male like a stalker at the gym, hoping to catch his eye. If her charms pay off, he'll take this cute chick to dinner and feed her worms; Lady and the Tramp style.

If you're more of a Bachelor fan, tune into the Mourning Dove. Listen to the theme song of his lonely heart, a sorrowful ballad of, "Who? Who? Who?". Who will become his one true love?

But the most infamous and troublesome of these rooftop performers is The Masked Singer. Eyes behind swaths of red or black, this raucous Rockstar of a Woodpecker advertises for groupies. He bangs out his romantic rhythms on the loudest instrument he can find, usually your gutter. He plays this heavy metal drum as if cranked up to eleven. You can barely hear yourself think! But nerves be soothed. You can mute this noisy show by just providing catering. He'll choose to eat at your particular venue instead of play his Dating Game there.

The least expensive, easiest, and best way to set up a Food Network in winter is with a $3 suet cage found at the grocery store. The high-fat content in a suet brick packs on warming insulation. Just attach the feeder flat to the trunk of a tree. The higher it hangs, the larger the visitor. There's even a chance of luring the ever-allusive Pileated Woodpecker, the largest of all feeder birds! This exotic fellow looks like a direct descendant of Woody Woodpecker himself.

Attracting birds to your winter yard will channel hours of entertainment while bringing substantial benefits to your ecosystem every season of the year. Resident birds love to feast on unwanted pests and aphids. And of course, are known for being pollinators. Why not let them give your flowers a jumpstart on spring?

And while on the subject of landscapes and spring, I'll address the flying elephant in the room. The Landscape Committee is attending regular meetings with the HOA board while working hand-in-hand with our property manager to ensure the front entrance reflects every bit of the grace and splendor for which our neighborhood is proud to be known. We look forward to seeing the beautiful results when the project is complete, and a bounty of greenery and flowers are growing headlong in the sun.

We'll keep you updated on important happenings in this monthly column. So stay informed and watch this space!
